

JUSTICE SUNDAY 2008

The Cost of Iraq: Who Pays the Price?

“A nation that continues year after year to spend more money on military defense than on programs of social uplift is approaching spiritual death.”

– Martin Luther King, Jr.

About Justice Sunday

Today, we stand with UUSC and Unitarian Universalist congregations nationwide.

In honoring the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and observing the 40th anniversary of his assassination, we work to restore justice for the people of the United States of America and for the people of Iraq.

The war in Iraq has drained this nation’s resources, created a humanitarian crisis in Iraq, and left a multitude of needs at home unmet – including the disgraceful lack of resources and commitment to rebuild the Gulf Coast.

Today’s worship service and UUSC’s Simple Steps for Justice will empower us each to educate, act, and speak out.

Visit www.uusc.org/justicesunday to learn more today.

About UUSC

An independent human rights organization, UUSC works to advance economic justice, promote environmental justice, defend civil liberties, and protect the rights of vulnerable people in humanitarian crises.

Our work is grounded in UU principles and made possible by the activism and generous support of our 47,000 members and supporters.

The pursuit of justice is work done by many communities in partnership, each contributing something unique.

Our membership is the strength that makes this partnership possible. Join us today!

JUSTICE SUNDAY 2008

The Cost of Iraq: Who Pays the Price?

“A nation that continues year after year to spend more money on military defense than on programs of social uplift is approaching spiritual death.”

– Martin Luther King, Jr.

About Justice Sunday

Today, we stand with UUSC and Unitarian Universalist congregations nationwide.

In honoring the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and observing the 40th anniversary of his assassination, we work to restore justice for the people of the United States of America and for the people of Iraq.

The war in Iraq has drained this nation’s resources, created a humanitarian crisis in Iraq, and left a multitude of needs at home unmet – including the disgraceful lack of resources and commitment to rebuild the Gulf Coast.

Today’s worship service and UUSC’s Simple Steps for Justice will empower us each to educate, act, and speak out.

Visit www.uusc.org/justicesunday to learn more today.

About UUSC

An independent human rights organization, UUSC works to advance economic justice, promote environmental justice, defend civil liberties, and protect the rights of vulnerable people in humanitarian crises.

Our work is grounded in UU principles and made possible by the activism and generous support of our 47,000 members and supporters.

The pursuit of justice is work done by many communities in partnership, each contributing something unique.

Our membership is the strength that makes this partnership possible. Join us today!

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST
SERVICE COMMITTEE

689 MASSACHUSETTS AVENUE • CAMBRIDGE, MA 02139-3302
WWW.UUSC.ORG • INFO@UUSC.ORG • 617-868-6600

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST
SERVICE COMMITTEE

689 MASSACHUSETTS AVENUE • CAMBRIDGE, MA 02139-3302
WWW.UUSC.ORG • INFO@UUSC.ORG • 617-868-6600